

National Service Scheme
North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon

National Service Scheme is the India's largest student youth movement, a noble experiment in academic expansion. It includes the spirit of voluntary work among the student's/teachers through sustained community interaction, to combine knowledge and action, which gives maximum exposure and experience to help the youth to find avenues of self-employment. Eventually it is an idea of helping the Govt. and Non-Govt. organizations to achieve their goal in National development. NSS is an education & service based scheme and such NSS programme is funded by the Government of India & the State Government.

The North Maharashtra University (N.M.U.) was carved out to the erstwhile. Pune University in 1989-90 to facilitate the academic administration of khandesh which consists of three districts namely Jalgaon, Dhule & Nandurbar. The National service Scheme (N.S.S.) unit of the University started its independent functioning from as academic year 1993-94 with the approval strength of 6,000 students. The affiliated colleges also conduct NSS activities which are monitored through the NSS Co-coordinator, Student's Welfare Department of the University. NSS volunteers at different locations organize activities like street plays, AIDS awareness campaigns, wall posters etc. National Service Scheme of North Maharashtra University, Jalgaon is linked up with the Dept. of Student's Welfare. NSS is implemented in 78 to 80 colleges conducted and affiliated to NMU spread out in the 03 district - Jalgaon, Dhule & Nandurbar for an academic year 2008-09 to 2013-14 with the approval strength of 13,500 students. The actual enrollment of the students is as follows.

Aims and objectives

1. The broad objectives of N.S.S. are to
 - i. Understand the community in which they work;
 - ii. Understand themselves in relation to their community;
 - iii. Identify the needs and problems of the community and involve with them in problem solving process;
 - iv. Develop among them a sense of social and civic responsibility;
 - v. Utilize their knowledge in finding practical problems;
 - vi. Gain skills in mobilizing community participation;
 - vii. Develop capacity to meet emergencies and natural disasters
 - viii. Acquire leadership qualities and democratic attitude.
 - ix. Practice national integration and social harmony

Aims of NSS Programmes/Activities

The operational aims of NSS are to integrate the three basic components of the programme which includes, NSS programme should provide a variety of learning experiences which must develop a sense of participation, service and achievement among the volunteers. The activities should aim at the following:-

- i. Making education more relevant to the present situation to meet the felt needs of the community and supplement the education of the university/college students by bringing them face to face with the rural situation.
- ii. Providing opportunities to the students to play their role in planning and executing development projects which would not only help in creating durable community assets in rural areas and urban slums but also results in the improvement of quality of life of the economically and socially weaker sections of the community;
- iii. Encouraging students and non-students to work together along with the adults in rural areas.
- iv. Developing qualities of leadership by discovering the latent potential among the campers, both students as well as local youth (Rural and Urban), with a view to involve them more intimately in the development programme and also to ensure proper maintenance of the assets created during the camps.
- v. Emphasizing dignity of labour and self-help and the need for combining physical work with intellectual pursuits.
- vi. Encouraging youth to participate enthusiastically in the process of national development and promote national integration, through corporate living and cooperative action. While undertaking these activities, each NSS unit should envisage its programmes activities aimed at instilling discipline, building character, promotion of physical fitness and development of culture.

Classification of NSS Programmes (Activities of NSS)

NSS activities have been divided in two major groups. These are regular activities and special camping programme

1. Regular NSS activity: - Under this, students undertake various programmes in the adopted villages, college/school campuses and Urban Slums for community service.

The NSS Units organize the regular activities as detailed below:

- i. Orientation of NSS Volunteers: - To get the NSS volunteers acquainted with the basics of NSS programmes, through lectures, discussions, field visits and audio-visuals etc.
- ii. Campus Work: - The NSS volunteers may be involved in the projects undertaken for the benefit of the institution and students concerned. Such projects cover development of play grounds, laying of gardens, tree plantation in the premises, awareness programmes on drug-abuse, AIDS, population education and other campus projects.

- iii. The NSS units will be utilized for community service on the projects in adopted villages/ Urban Slums independently or in collaboration with others in this field, as detailed below.
- a. Institutional Work: - The students may be placed with selected voluntary organizations working for the welfare of women, children, aged and disabled outside the campus.
 - b. Rural Project :- The rural projects generally include the working of NSS volunteers in adopted villages for eradication of illiteracy, development, agricultural operations, health, nutrition, sanitation family life education, saving drives, construction of rural roads, campaign against social evils etc.
 - c. Urban Projects :- In addition to rural projects other include adult education, welfare of slum dwellers, training in civil defense, traffic control, setting up first-aid posts, work in hospitals, orphanages, destitute home, environment, population education, drug, AIDS awareness, and income generation projects etc. Professional and technical institutions having NSS may have to design appropriate programmes for the community based on the needs.
 - d. Natural Calamities & National Emergencies: - The NSS units are expected to utilize the services of NSS volunteers at the time of natural calamities and national emergencies for mobilizing public support and rendering necessary assistance to the authorities in rescue, relief and rehabilitation. In such emergencies and calamities, the Programme Officers are expected to take the initiative and offer the services of the NSS units and its volunteers to assist the administration.
 - e. National Days and Celebrations :- The National Service Scheme programmes also include the celebration of National days. The purpose of such a provision is to celebrate such occasions in a befitting manner.

2. Special Camping Programme :-

Special Camping forms an integral part of National Service Scheme it provides Unique opportunities to the students for group-living collective experience sharing & constant interaction with community, Every year 50 percent of the volunteers of each NSS Unit are expected to participate in Special Camps which is of 7 Day duration, Special Camping are organized generally on various developmental issue of national importance such as youth against dirt & diseases, Youth for rural reconstruction, Youth for mass literacy, Youth for total sanitation, healthy youth for healthy India etc.

3. National Programmes :-

In the development of any nation, certain programmes assume special relevance in view of problems existing or anticipated. In our country, three such programmes have been launched. They are the Mass Programme of Functional Literacy, AIDS Awareness Programme and Sustainable development with emphasis on Watershed Management & Wasteland Development. It is pertinent to mention that NSS Volunteers have come forward with zeal to make these programmes a great success.

4. Disaster Management Training Camp:-

In order to make the students and the general public aware about various types of disasters, the NSS unit of NMU organise workshop on the Role of NSS in Disaster Management, the basic purpose of starting a series of workshops on disaster management was to create an effective awareness among the NSS volunteers so that they can play a significant role in disseminating awareness among fellow students in particular and among the masses in general. The University organizes such training camp every year with the help of Home-Guard Jalgaon District Commandant.

These programmes would enable the student to understand and respect agonies of the people affected in the wake of natural calamities like cyclone flood, earthquakes bombblast, road accident etc.

The NSS students can be involved in –

1. Assisting the local authorities in distribution of rations, medicine clothes, organize blood donation camps etc.
2. Working with for local people in reconstruction of their huts, cleaning of wells, building, roads etc.
3. Collection of clothes & other material & sending the same to the affected areas.
