 - (xi) It is compulsory to submit 'No Dues Certificate' at the time of submission of final thesis to the Research Section.
- (d) Appointment of Examiners:
- (i) The concerned RRC will suggest separate panel of external examiners which include eight names of experts relative to the area of research of the subject (four from Maharashtra State and four from outside of Maharashtra State) for the evaluation of thesis. The Pro-Vice Chancellor shall appoint four examiners out of the above with priority.
 - (ii) The guide of the candidate shall be the internal examiner. In case, if some unavoidable circumstances, the internal examiner (guide) is not able to evaluate the thesis, then the Pro-Vice Chancellor will appoint another senior (guide) of the concerned subject to work as an internal examiner.
- (e) Evaluation:
- (i) After appointment of the external referees (two from Maharashtra State and two from outside of Maharashtra State) by the Pro-Vice Chancellor, synopsis will be sent to the external examiners in the order of their appointment (one from Maharashtra State and one from outside of Maharashtra State) by e-mail for his/her consent to evaluate the thesis. If external examiner(s), does not reply within 15 days from the receipt of e-mail, it will be assumed that he/she is not willing (non-acceptance) to assess the doctoral dissertation and the synopsis will be send to next examiners in their order of appointment.
 - (ii) After getting willingness from first two external examiners (one from Maharashtra State and one from outside of Maharashtra State) by e-mail or phone, the Hard copy or soft copy of the thesis in PDF format will be sent to them for the evaluation, by post or e-mail, respectively, along with prescribed format of evaluation sheet(s).
 - (iii) The external examiners shall independently send their detail reports and evaluation sheet(s) in the prescribed format to the Ph.D. section of university and copy to guide within forty five days from the date of receipt of the thesis. If an examiner fails to do so, the Ph.D. section of university shall send him/her a reminder immediately by e-mail after the expiry of the period (45 days) and request him/her to submit the report within thirty days thereof. If the concerned examiner fails to comply even within the extended period, the Ph.D. section of university shall cancel his appointment forthwith and invite the next examiner from the approved panel to evaluate the thesis.

In the event of a request for the late submission of report, receipt of the report after the appointment has been cancelled or the loss of report, postal delay, etc. the Pro-Vice Chancellor shall take an appropriate decision in the interest of the candidate concerned.

- (iv) The positive reports received from the external examiners and the research guide (internal examiner) shall immediately be forwarded to the Dean of the faculty, who after ascertaining that the reports are favorable, shall invite joint report from internal referee and forward the said reports to Pro-Vice Chancellor for appointment of external examiner (generally within Maharashtra state, in case of exception, from other state) for viva voce and the defense of the thesis.

If, external examiner thus appointed from the state will be unavailable for more than a month or rejects to conduct viva voce and replied the e-mail about same, Ph.D. section of the university shall make the appointment of another examiner from the panel, already approved by Pro-Vice Chancellor.

- (v) In case, any one out of the two external examiners give unfavorable report, then Ph.D. section of the university shall send the thesis to third examiner for evaluation and wait for the report of third external examiner. If the third examiner also gives an unfavorable report, then the candidate will be declared as failed.
- (vi) If the external examiners have suggested major corrections in his/her evaluation reports regarding typographical, grammatical, spelling mistakes or any other etc. observed in the thesis, the University will ask the candidate through guide to make necessary changes/corrections in the thesis. The candidate will have to submit three copies of the final corrected thesis after incorporating all the corrections as per the suggestions of the examiners, within one month from the date of receipt of letter from Ph.D. section of the university.

16. Final Viva-Voce and defense of the thesis:

After receiving favorable reports from both the external examiners and joint report from the internal examiner/guide, the procedure shall be initiated for conducting the final Viva-Voce/defense.

- a) The committee for the final viva-voce (defense) shall be appointed by Pro-Vice Chancellor, the constituted committee consisting of:
 - (i) Director/Head/Professor of the concerned University School / Department OR Professor/Principal of the affiliated college - Chairman

(ii) (one) External referee - Member

(iii) Research Guide/Co-guide - Member

- b) In consultation with the chairman and external examiners, the internal examiner/guide should communicate the suitable date of final Viva-voce to Ph.D. section of university, at least 15 days in advance.
- c) The day, date, time and the place for the viva-voce examination shall be notified by the Ph.D. section of university at least eight days in advance to the candidate, the examiner, guide and chairman of the open defense. It shall also be displayed on Notice Board of the concerned venue of the viva-voce.
- d) The open defense of the thesis shall take place in the presence of Chairman, external and internal examiners. The examiners shall jointly evaluate the performance of the candidate. The role of Chairman shall be to conduct viva-voce in order. The Chairman will not have any role in the evaluation process of the candidate during viva-voce.
- e) If none of the external examiner is present at the time of the defense, the Pro-Vice Chancellor, on the recommendation of the guide shall appoint a senior research guide in the subject/allied subject to act as an examiner for the defense of the thesis. In case, the internal examiner is not available, the Pro-Vice Chancellor shall appoint one of the senior research guides in the concerned subject from the panel of recognized research guide in the subject/allied subject to act as an internal examiner.
- f) Both the examiners and the Chairman present for the Viva-voce and the defense of thesis shall submit their final consolidated report about the award of the Ph.D. degree, in the prescribed format to the Ph.D. section of university immediately after the defense is over.
- g) The recommendations shall specify that the Ph.D. degree be awarded to the candidate OR that the candidate should undertake a fresh defense after specified period.
- h) When thesis is recommended for the award of Ph.D. degree to the candidate, one copy of the thesis shall be deposited in the University Central Library, rest of the copies handed over to the Ph.D. section of university, guide and the candidate.

18. Declaration of result:

After receipt of satisfactory viva-voce examination report, the Ph.D. section of the university shall issue the notification immediately after the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

19. Thesis submission in UGC Repository:

Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and announcements of the award of Ph.D., the University shall submit a soft copy of the Ph.D. thesis to the UGC within a period of thirty days, for hosting the same in INFLIBNET, which will be then accessible to all Institutions/Universities.

20. On the points which are not specially covered in these rules, the necessary decision will be taken by the University authorities accordingly.
